About Us

Jefferson County Young Professionals Network, a program of the Pine Bluff Regional Chamber of Commerce, is a group of dynamic individuals under age 45 who are dedicated to civic participation, professional and personal growth, and have a shared interest in making Jefferson County a more attractive place for young professionals to live and work.

Our Mission

To engage talented young professionals in the betterment of Jefferson County through development, networking and community service opportunities.

Our Goal

Our goal is to keep talented and educated young professionals in Jefferson County as future executives and leaders in our community.

What is a professional?

Professionals are learned people who, on a daily basis, engage in an occupation involving skill, expertise, passion and energy.

Cost

JCYPN Membership is $35 per year which includes:

- Unique events that appeal to members' varying interests
- Opportunities to expand your social network by meeting and interacting with people you wouldn't have met otherwise
- Scheduled meetings

How to Join
